

IS IT A BLUFF OR REAL WORK?

Legislature Gets Down To Business And Does Considerable Work This Morning.

MEANWHILE LA FOLLETTE WORKS

Meets Members Of The Legislature In The Interests Of Isaac Stephenson For United States Senator.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Madison, Wis., March 19.—Senator Hudson postponed the fight on the bill to appropriate over ten thousand dollars to pay the members of the insurance and university investigating committees. He believes they were appointed to serve without pay other than actual expenses and will oppose the additional pay. The senate today, and the bill was sent back to the claims committee.

The senate and assembly worked through long calendars of unimportant matters indicating the senatorial situation has not much interfered with the legislative progress.

La Follette Busy
Senator La Follette continues to sit in his law office and is visited by members of the legislature, of whom he solicits the votes for Stephenson for Spooner's seat.

A Big Play
Davidson people declare La Follette is making a big grandstand play for Stephenson, who cannot be elected and that Leavitt is the real La Follette choice of all the candidates here. In the headquarters but little develops to change the situation.

The Caucus
Efforts are being made to bring about a caucus of republicans and have an early settlement of the senatorship so as to hasten the final adjournment.

BOY SHOT BY GIRL DISGUISED AS MAN?

Unknown Assailant Failed in Attempt to Murder Herbert A. Graves, Jr., at Kenosha.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Kenosha, Wis., March 19.—An unknown man or woman, secreted in the A. L. Flegel Building company's office, at midnight shot Herbert A. Graves, Jr., son of the foreman of the Racine Hardware company. By throwing up his hands young Graves warned off the twenty-two calibre bullet which pierced his left hand and saved his life. Graves told the police a mild story until the cross-examination, when he confessed that the assailant was a woman, disguised as a man. He seems to know more about the case than he will tell. Graves sleeps in a suite in the rear of the Flegel office and was attracted into the office by a noise.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
New York, March 19.—Opening prices in the stock market today showed declines generally which were wide in some of the most active stocks. Reading, Union Pacific, St. Paul and Hill stock in Amalgamated Copper broke in precipitate fashion and the entire market became sensationally weak. The break is ascribed to varied causes, chief among them being persistent rumor that one or more failures are imminent. The excitement today is as great as last Thursday.

The wind and flames this morning menaced the Vanbrunt and other big lumber mills. Incendiarism is strongly evidenced. The cause is believed to be jealousy over the success of recently poor owners.

LARGE ATTENDANCE AT CONSECRATION

Rev. Dr. George A. Guertin of Manchester Made a Bishop in Roman Church.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Manchester, N. H., March 19.—The most brilliant ecclesiastical function ever seen here was the consecration today of Rev. Dr. George A. Guertin as Bishop of the Roman Catholic diocese of Manchester. The solemn service was held in St. Joseph's Cathedral, which, though spacious, was taxed to accommodate the large crowd present. The consecrating prelate was the Most Rev. Diomedo Falconio, the apostolic delegate at Washington, who was assisted by the Rt. Rev. Matthew H. Harkins, bishop of Providence, and Rt. Rev. Michael Tierney, bishop of Hartford. The sermon was preached by the Rt. Rev. Louis S. Walsh, bishop of Portland, who was a classmate of Bishop Guertin. A large number of the clergy assisted as officers of the consecration service and of the solemn pontifical mass. The ceremony, which is one of the most solemn and impressive in the church ritual, included the customary preliminary examination, the consecration proper and the investiture. It began shortly after 10 o'clock and it was three hours later before it was concluded. Later the many visiting prelates and priests were entertained at luncheon.

SEASON OF RACING OPENS IN ENGLAND

Lincoln Handicap, Worth Ten Thousand, Run on Carlisle Moor near London.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
London, March 19.—The English flat racing season commences today with the running of the Lincoln Handicap, worth $10,000, which has for nearly a century been the first important race of the year. The Lincoln meeting lasts only three days, after which racing is transferred to Liverpool to finish up the week. Though the soil of the Carlisle, as the moor on which the Lincoln race track is located is called, is a sandy loam, the going at this season of the year is generally holding, so light weighted old horses are usually to the fore in the race. This is not always the case, however, for though the course is perfectly straight and almost level, it is said to be seventeen yards over a mile. Emding won in 1885 in the phenomenal time of 1:38, although he carried 117 pounds. The most prominent entry in today's handicap are Fra Diavolo, Camisard, His Eminence, Sarcelle, Lovania and Kaffir Chief. The feature of the Liverpool meeting will be the Grand National to be run next Friday and which, with the exception of the Derby, attracts the biggest crowd of any race in the world. The most prominent entries in the Grand National this year are Wolf's Crag, Eremion, Timothy Titus and Red Lad. The distance is four and one-half miles and the number of obstacles to be crossed thirty-two.

COURT MARTIAL OF MILITIA CAPTAIN

First Battery Officer Charged With Grafting Will be Placed on Trial Soon.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
New York, March 19.—National Guard circles are much interested in the trial by court martial of Capt. Louis Wendel of the First Battery, National Guard, against whom charges of grafting were made some time ago. The court is to meet at the First Battery Armory tonight for formal organization. The court of inquiry which investigated the charges made against Captain Wendel reported that that officer had shared to the extent of over $3,000 in the wages of the janitor of the armory; that he got $920 from the engineer and $926 from the assistant engineer at the armory. It is further alleged against Wendel that he abetted the sale of liquor at social functions in the armory and that he shared in the profits therefrom. The court martial is composed of a number of prominent National Guard officers, with Major Louis L. Babcock, Fourth Brigade, acting as Judge Advocate.

SURVEYORS OBJECT TO RAILWAY RATES

Complain That They Are Charged Excess Baggage Fees For Tools.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
St. Paul, Minn., March 19.—The state railroad and warehouse commission gave a hearing today on the complaint of the Minnesota Engineers and Surveyors' association against the railroads for charging extra for the transportation of surveyors' tools and equipment. The surveyors maintain that the action of the railroads is in the nature of a discrimination as every passenger has a right to carry 150 pounds of baggage free of charge and that no charge is made for carpenters' tools or hunters' equipment.

HOLDING EXAMINATIONS TO SELECT NEW CONSULS NOW

Thirty Applicants Are Taking The Examinations In Washington For Foreign Appointment.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Washington, March 19.—Uncle Sam took the first steps this week toward reorganizing his staff of commercial "drummers." Twenty-five candidates who seek to enter the consular service were notified to appear before the State Department to demonstrate their fitness. The examinations are the first under the new rules, which were framed by Secretary Root and passed upon by congress, reorganizing the consular service. In addition to the subjects covered by a general academic education, the examination includes a knowledge of one foreign language, either French, German or Spanish.

While twenty-five candidates are taking the examination there are only eighteen vacancies, thirteen of these, paying from $2,000 to $5,500, will be filled by the promotion of competent men already in the service. With the extension of Uncle Sam's foreign trade, which is growing at a rapid rate at the present time, a large number of other fitted both by experience and education.

Foreseeing the inevitable trend toward a reform in the consular service, George Washington University ten years ago organized a course in diplomacy and international law, which since then has grown to such proportions that it has taken on the dignity of a separate college. This was the first course of its kind undertaken by any American university, and a number of its graduates are already holding responsible positions under the government in foreign lands. The course of training in diplomatic usages, international law and languages is three years, with an additional fourth year if the aspirant for consular or diplomatic honors desires the degree of Master of Diplomacy.

The establishment of this special school here has been a decided advantage in bettering the class of men sent abroad to represent the United States. The university also has been extremely lucky in its environment, for it has the advantages of co-operation with the representatives of foreign governments stationed here, and its students can find practical illustration of the theories of diplomacy worked out under their eyes every day. The state department, the congressional library and the halls of congress furnish training schools in connection with the university that makes the course of especial value.

In founding this college of diplomacy George Washington University unwittingly conferred a high favor upon the government of the United States in training men for diplomatic duty abroad. It may be due to the university's enterprise in this direction that the administration of the typical American university. At the present time the university has received by local subscription upwards of $115,000 which will be applied to erect the site, it is estimated, will cost $400,000 and the remainder of the fund necessary to complete the purchase will be forthcoming within the next two or three weeks, at the rate subscriptions now are pouring in.

Two or three large buildings already have been promised by individuals to the university, and it is believed that the country at large will respond to an appeal to make of the university the great national educational institution for which it is geographically so well fitted. Individual donations of buildings are expected and it is hoped that men of wealth in all parts of the country will come forward with sufficient funds to found an adequate endowment.

PARANOID INSANITY IS THE NEW DISEASE

New Opinion as to Thaw's Mental Attitude Is Discussed This Morning.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
New York, March 19.—The cross-examination of Dr. Smith-Ely Jelliffe, an insanity expert, for the defense, occupied the whole morning session of the court trying the Thaw murder of Whitely. The district attorney produced a medical work edited by Jelliffe and interrogated the witness regarding the contents of many of its chapters and there were frequent wrangles between the prosecution and the witness. Delmas, during the cross-examination, noted the exceptions to several of Jerome's remarks on the ground of misconduct. He also objected to the whole course of the cross-examination, but Justice Fitzgerald overruled all the objections. Jelliffe said it was his opinion that Thaw had been insane—suffering from a paranoid form of insanity—for at least two and a half years prior to the tragedy.

Doctors Pilgrim and Gregory, alienists, both gave it as their opinion that Thaw was insane when he killed White. Dr. Chas. G. Wagner also said Thaw was insane when he killed White.

SEWER BUILDING
PLANS ADOPTED

BY THE CITY COUNCIL AT MEET-ING LAST NIGHT.

TIN STAR ON EACH BOSOM

Gave the Alderman an Air of Great Dignity and Authority—Business of the Session.

"The aldermen will assume their various stations and the regalia of office," quoth Mayor Hutchinson as his gavel fell at the opening of the common council meeting last evening.
The regalia of office consisted of a collection of tin stars with safety-pin attachments which some way had procured and distributed at the desks,
the evident purpose being to hasten
the realization of Alderman Brockhaus'
plan to have each City Father properly labeled with a suitable badge. The mayor and several of the aldermen gravely attached the five-pointed breast-plates to their many bosoms and then proceeded with the regular order of business.

Health Officer's Report
Health Commissioner W. D. Merritt reported that since Jan. 7 there had been in this city five cases of quarantineable contagious disease—all a mild type of diphtheria. He called attention to the deplorable condition
of public alleys described as follows:
extending from North Jackson street
to North Franklin street, immediately adjacent to the city hall; extending from North Franklin street to N.
River street; extending from S. Academy to S. High street immediately north of the Lincoln school; extending from N. Academy street to Marion street. Waste water and garbage dumped in these localities had caused the ground to become sour and at any time the places might become a menace to the public health. Paving with brick seemed to offer the only real solution of the problem. The attention of the council was called to the fact that William Green, the city garbage collector, would be unable to continue his duties in that capacity and that another would have to be secured to his place. The report was referred to the judiciary committee and on the latter's recommendation received and placed on file. Reports of the city treasurer and the board of education for February were similarly disposed of.

1907 Sewer Construction
The street assessment committee's report recommending the construction of certain sewers during the approaching summer, which had been referred to the committee on sewers
at a previous meeting, was submitted by Alderman Brockhaus. Owing to the fact that certain work projected for last year—notably the construction of a sewer on a point between Wisconsin and East streets, the trunk sewer on South Main street from St.
Lawrence avenue to a point between Clark and Carvington streets, and the one on Racine street from Main to Rock river—was still in an unfinished state and under contract with Harding & Nelson of Racine, it was not deemed advisable to undertake the building of too large an amount of new lines this season. The committee advocated the completion of last year's work and the laying of pipes in Sewer District 3, on Lincoln street from School street to Western avenue; in District 5, on High street from West Bluff street to the St. Paul depot; in District 12, on S. Second street from Main to East street, and on East street from S. Second street to a point 264 feet south, in District 11, on Milton avenue, from Prospect avenue to a point near St. Mary's avenue. Alderman Connell moved that the clause relating to District 11
be stricken out and after some debate
the motion was carried. The report and recommendations as amended were then adopted and an order authorizing the steps preliminary to construction work was passed.

Grades and Curbing
City Engineer Kerch submitted grades for the following described fractional portions of thoroughfares:
Sharon street from Main to Front; Clark street from Bluff street to the city; Logan street from Sharon to Vista avenue, and from Racine street to Forest Park; Racine street

avenue from Racine street to Wheeler street; Home Park avenue; Vista

Miscellaneous Business

Ald. Merrill of the fire and water committee to which was referred Field Bros' petition for a special dispensation with regard to erecting a small building in the lumber yard in violation of the ordinance, stated that the petitioners had agreed to pull down another shed in consideration of the granting of this request, and asked that further time be granted before definite action should be taken. The matter was held over, as recommended. Ald. Duin introduced an order authorizing the municipal primary election today and the same was passed. Ald. Connell, reporting for the finance committee, explained that the $226.88 item for the American Sign Co. was the balance remaining from the original estimate of $358 after the allowance for putting up a portion of the signs which city officers fixed in place, and had been deducted. The street commissioner was instructed by orders to build a brick crosswalk on Hyatt street on the west side of Fifth avenue and to construct a culvert across Beloit avenue on the east side of Eastern avenue. Alvah Maxfield's removal from the city necessitated the election of a new constable from the third ward.
Ald. Watt proposed the name of James Costigan and the latter was named by unanimous vote.

tiful tin regalia and looked mean-ingly at Ald. Brockhaus, never ob-to secure a badge bearing the Wisconsin coat of arms and that some other design would have to be decided upon. Nothing definite was done about the matter. Mayor Hutchinson called attention to the fact that the meeting was destined to be the last one with Alderman Watt in the circle and Ald. Connell promptly moved a vote of thanks to the retiring alderman from the third ward for the manner in which he had attended meetings and attended to the business of the city during the past eleven months. The motion was carried, all voting "aye." All of the City Fathers were present at the session, save Ald.

Huger.

POLITICS AND POLITICIANS.

Representative Champ Clark of Missouri is making a lecture tour of the South.

Postmaster General George von L.
Meyer, who recently assumed office,
has accepted an invitation to address
the Beacon Society in Boston, on March 23.

President Roosevelt was urged to be a candidate for another term by the Swedish-American Republican League
of Illinois at its recent convention held in Rockford. Resolutions were adopted commending his administration and praising his statesmanship.
William J. Bryan, who has been making one-night stands throughout the country for nearly six months, plans to end his lecture tour early in April. It is expected that he will then begin an active campaign for the democratic presidential nomination somewhere in New England.

A warm and interesting contest,
though entirely devoid of any bittiness, is being waged in the Eighth congressional district of Virginia for the next left vacant by the death of Representative Rixey. Several candidates are in the running, though John F. Ryan, ex-speaker of the Virginia House, is said to have a slight lead.

It is an interesting fact that Ohio
has furnished nine governors of Colorado. The list begins with Gen. J.
W. Denver, Colorado's first governor and in honor of whom the capital city was named. The other Buckeyes who became governors of the Centennial State were Robert W. Steele, John
Evans, General Edward Moody Mc-
Cook, Samuel E. Elbert, Benjamin H.
Eaton, Jesse F. McDonald, and Henry
A. Buchtel.

The recent death of former Senator Pugh of Alabama removed one of the few survivors of the Confederate confession. The living ex-members, so far as known, are only five. They are:
John V. Wright, D. C. Atkins and Arthur S. Colyar, all of Tennessee, and two Virginians—Gen. Roger A. Pryor, now practicing law in New York, and John Goode, former member of congress, now a resident of Washington.
According to a story printed in New York the latest feature in democratic national politics is the work which is now being put into boom for the nomination for president next year.
Jesse R. Grant, youngest son of President Grant, Jesse Grant has been in New York for some weeks past and is said to have had conferences with Roger C. Sullivan, democratic national committee-man for Illinois; Charles A. Walsh, who recently resigned as secretary of the democratic national committee, and a number of other party leaders, particularly those known to be opposed to the candidacy of William J. Bryan.

Among the Southern democratic leaders who openly express the hope that their party will not nominate William J. Bryan for the presidency
next year is the venerable Senator John T. Morgan of Alabama. He expresses a preference for Judge George Gray of Delaware and is convinced the south would prefer Gray to Bryan.

In a recent interview Senator Morgan said: "In my opinion Judge Gray is the best equipped man in the United States to lead the democratic party to a successful result next year. As a democrat he has lived since the organization of the government, who has clearest views and principles of the cause of the democratic party."

No respect to Governor Vardman and John Sharp Williams, the rival senatorial aspirants in Mississippi differ more clearly than in their attitude toward Mr. Bryan and his presidential ambition. Governor Vardman stands pat with Mr. Bryan on his railroad ownership and supervision pronouncements, while Mr. Williams does not. The governor would fix a platform to suit Mr. Bryan, while Mr.

Williams would prefer to build the platform and invite Mr. Bryan to step on it. In respect to this one point Mr. Williams is believed to have the majority of the people of Mississippi
with him.

OLD RESIDENTS MET
AT SURPRISE PARTY

Evansville Aged Men Helped Homer Potter Celebrate His Seventy-seventh Birthday.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Evansville, March 16.—On Saturday, March 16, a number of self-invited guests repaired to the residence of Homer Potter for the purpose of helping him celebrate his seventy-seventh birthday and never before had anyone been more completely surprised and at the same time highly pleased than Mr. Potter. The guests arrived a short time before noon, hour and after partaking of a bountiful dinner the afternoon was very pleasantly spent in narrating past experiences, and singing oldtime songs. All those present had passed three score years and among the number were two who were over ninety years of age and two who were past eighty years. It was a company of intimate friends, and most of those in attendance had exchanged social visits for over fifty years. Mr. and Mrs. Levi Leonard, "Miles" Tullar,
Samuel Cadwallader, Mr. and Mrs.
John Tullar, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Smith and Frank Baker were among the guests.

The Camping club gave a very pleasant reception at the home of Mr.
and Mrs. V. A. Axtell last Saturday evening, March 16, in honor of Arthur Shashall, a former businessman of this city, but now of Sioux Falls, South Dakota. Mr. Shashall's boyhood days were all spent in Evansville and because of his pleasant disposition and genial ways he was a general favorite and his presence was a source of great pleasure to the company. The rooms were tastefully decorated with palms and potted plants and the evening was very en-joyably passed with various games,
after which elaborate refreshments were served. Dr. and Mrs. Bert Biglow of Rockford, Ill., were among the out-of-town guests.

Rev. R. Harlan was summoned to Washington, D. C., last Saturday by the death of his mother. Mr. Harlan will return the last of the week and will fill his pulpit here as usual next Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Byron Winston of Pacific Grove, California, arrived in this city Saturday and will spend two or three weeks as guests of Mr. and Mrs. L. Fraatz. Mr. and Mrs. Winston were former residents of this place and have many friends here, who are glad of the opportunity to meet them again.

Rev. T. W. North, pastor of the M. E. church, delivered a temperance address in Darien last Friday evening.

Guy Patterson has resigned his position as clerk in the Grange, process and George Pepper, formerly of Footville, will fill the vacancy.

Mrs. Hazel Hankinson, who is teaching in Danard, Ill., is spending her vacation at home.
Mrs. John Albertie of Fond du Lac is in the city as the guest of her nieces, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Monahan.
She will go from here to Milwaukee
where they will make their future home.

Ralph Smith left for Alabama Sunday, having been called there by the serious illness of his father.

Miss Lula Van Patten spent Friday in Madison. Miss Edith Fairbanks filled her position as teacher of the fourth grade for the day.

Mrs. B. W. Hubbard, who has been spending the winter with her son Clayton in Chicago, is expected home today.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Francisco were called to Janesville Saturday by the illness of the latter's brother, J. C.
Case, who has been quite sick for several weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Fuller went to Chicago Sunday morning for a brief visit with friends in that city.
Miss Florence of Rockford, who has been a guest of Mrs. Will Streeter, returned to her home Sunday night.

Frank Faulks of Brooklyn spent Sunday with his mother.

Mrs. Dwight Reed is ill at her home on Alderson street.

MINSTREL SHOW WAS GOOD PERFORMANCE

Imperial Minstrels Gave Novel Entertainment Last Evening Before Large Audience.

That Janesville has latent talent in song, fun and music was demonstrated last evening at Myers Theatre
when the Imperial Band gave their minstrel performance. The songs, the dances, the musical selections of the band, the tuneful notes of the orchestra, the jokes of the end men, were all good and the audience which packed the auditorium to the doors went away more than satisfied. The rendering of "The Poet and the Peasant," and "Southern Memories" by the full Imperial Band of thirty pieces was one of the finest musical selections
offered in Janesville for many years.
By any local organization.

Two men sat in the magic circle with Dr. D. Bennett as interlocutor. George H. Hatch and Will Cody were the Tambors, while John Baumann and Walter Carle made most excellent bones.

In the mystic circle were Henry Cody, George Adkins, George
Robinson, Rexford Brown, Russell Davis, James Cullen, Arthur Baumann, A. J. Gibbons, Joe Shuler, Will Men-
zies, Will Garbutt, James Riley,
Frank P. Smith and A. J. Cleveland.
The program opened with "The Good Old U. S. A." with a tableau representing "The Spirit of '76" in the background, and from that time on it was a snap and go with all the turns.
Henry Cody, Walter Carle, John Baumann,
William Garbutt, George
Hatch, Will Cody, Russell Davis, Jas.
Riley and Geo. Adkins all gave pleasing selections and James Cullen did some remarkable feats with a gun that showed he had lost none of his oldtime cunning. Charles Patterson made good with a German make-up and selection, which he wrote and staged himself, and the song "When Schneider's Goat Was Out." Miss Zada Weber of Watertown, a diminutive
miss of six years did some remarkable dancing and singing. A R.
Cressey presented a fresh and clever negro monologue and the great and only Diavolo in his high div, imported directly for the occasion, completed the program. Both the orchestra and band selections are worthy of particular deserving of much credit. The entire performance will be repeated, this evening upon the special request of many who were unable to secure seats for last evening's performance. The advance seat sale at noon denoted that this evening's entertainment will be as largely attended as was last night's.

JUDGE GRIMM HIGHLY
PRAISES THE JURORS

In Thanking and Dismissing Them for the Term Last Jury Case Tried Morning.

In circuit court this morning the last jury case set for the February term,
that of C. S. Jackson, trustee, vs. J.
E. Inman, was tried and a verdict or the defendant returned. In dismissing and thanking the jurors, Judge Grimm spoke in very complimentary manner
of their careful, painstaking work, and their high efficiency. He does not hesitate to say that it was the best balanced body of men ever assembled before him in this capacity. Discovering that the arguments on the motion to set aside the service of the complaint in the damage action of Miss Winifred Field vs. the Milwan-kee Electric Street Car Co. were likely to be protracted and to consume valuable time which rightfully belonged to the jury cases, Judge Grimm yesterday afternoon postponed consideration of the matter, requesting the attorneys to submit briefs. There are a large number of issues of fact for the court on the calendar and these will be disposed of as rapidly as possible. The judge will go to Green county next week but will return here the following week.

WISCONSIN WEATHER FORECAST
Generally fair tonight and Wednesday; cooler tonight and east Wednesday.

IN THE WAKE OF THE QUAKE

It takes a long while to get beyond the effects of a great catastrophe as national life is now constituted. Nearly a year ago the San Francisco earthquake occurred. Between April 19, 1906, and the present time there has been a continuous payment of insurance funds for losses by fire. The companies organized in Connecticut have just summed up their losses and find that they amount to $18,000,000. The transfer of so large a sum from invested assets of these corporations into cash payments to the insured involves much more than the transfer of the items from one side of the account to the other. It means the conversion of fixed investments into liquid cash by marketing an immense quantity of stocks and bonds in which form the insurance companies invest their reserve resources for emergencies of this character. This very change from fixed to liquid assets in itself would ordinarily amount to a shock to the security market of no moderate proportion. But the process of liquidation usually goes on gradually. Even then, in spite of all precaution, the pressure was felt as these liquidations occurred at intervals during the year. Another effect of this transaction was the transfer of funds from the east to the west. While the full amount of losses paid was not taken out bodily in the east and delivered in the west, nevertheless there has been so much of shifting as to increase the stringency in the money market. This was one of the factors that made the past year one of greater caution and reserve in the making of loans throughout banking circles from sea to sea.

HAS A DEAL BEEN MADE?

Has Senator La Follette made a deal whereby the strength of the faction which follows his leadership is to cast its votes for Isaac Stephenson for the short-term Senator, work for Cooper for the long-term two years from now and for Lenroot for the Governorship? This is the report that emanates from Madison today. How true it is, can only be vouched for by the facts when they actually happen. However, it is apparent that the Senator is doing his utmost to have Stephenson elected and if successful will be able to draw on his old backer for unlimited sums in the future to further his ends of reform. The situation is complicated. What will result is a question. To the onlooker it would seem that Davidson has the best showing though his name is not spoken of as prominently as might be. It is still a puzzle and the conservative members hold the key.

LOCAL POLITICS

Today's primaries will doubtless end all question as to who will be our new city officers. For Mayor the democrats have made no nomination, although some name will probably be written in this place on their ticket. The republicans have two candidates up, Watt and Heddles. For city clerk there is no democratic nomination but the same idea of writing in a name will doubtless follow while the republicans will choose between Skavlem and Badger. For Justice of the peace to fill the short term Tallman is the republican nominee and Hendricks on the democratic ticket. Charles Reeder stands alone as the republican nominee for the long term for this office. The democrats have named Richardson for the sealer of weights and measures, but the republicans will doubtless find some candidate's name written in on their ballots when the votes are counted. In the first ward there is no democratic ward ticket named. In the second O'Hara and Connell are fighting it for the democratic nomination for alderman and Snyder on the republican ticket. Skavlem is alone in the field for the republican nomination for supervisor. In the third a battle royal is in session. The three-cornered vote is between Amerphol, Brown and Plennie; is bringing out the voters and Bear has the field alone for supervisor, while Sheldon is the only candidate for the short term. In the fourth ward Renfold is the democratic nominee and Croft the republican candidate for alderman and Britt, the present supervisor on the democratic ticket. In the fifth Alderman Dulin is fighting ex-Alderman Murray for the aldermanic nomination with Ed Retheram is the democratic nominee for supervisor. There are no republican nominees in this ward and it is doubtful if any are selected. Taking it all in all, the situation can be sized up as centering upon the Mayoralty and city clerk for the higher offices and aldermanic contests on the democratic ticket in the fifth and second wards and republican in the third.

When Janesville gets a new Mayor and common council that back up the city Marshal in the way he should be, it is probable that the numerous disorders that occur each Sunday and the gambling rooms will be done away with.

Davidson for United States senator would be acceptable to the majority of the people of the state. They have become tired of the Bossism of the reformers and would like to think and act for themselves.

Roosevelt and his talk at Harvard have stirred the railroads into activity. Now they want that speech incorporated into the next Presidential message.

The subject of good roads is one which it would pay every farmer to pay careful attention to. Good roads on which to haul crops to market means money saved.

The man who seeks office by defaming the rest of the candidates is not the man to trust in an important place. It smacks too much of socialism.

There are bad sidewalks in the city that need close inspection. It would pay the aldermen and street commissioner to look after them.

How about Janesville getting up a petition asking our members of the legislature to vote for some good man for United States Senator.

Spring Brook needs attention this spring as usual and a few loads of dirt will not satisfy the men who want good roads.

There may be some surprises listened to this evening by some of the candidates who were so cocksure of nomination.

Every citizen who did not vote today did not exercise his rights of franchise given him under the constitution.

South Main street is particularly deficient in its macadam. Something ought to be done.

If you have not voted yet, remember that the polls are open until seven tonight.

Perhaps the proposed road from Rockford to Milwaukee will tap Janesville.

It is pretty near time for the spring flowers to appear.

PRESS COMMENT

Let the Water Out.
Chicago Tribune: Financial surgeons in Europe have just operated successfully on the Hill and Harriman stocks for dropsy.

Still, It's a Useful Variation.
St. Louis Globe-Democrat: Mr. Cleveland's latest phrase is "sinusitis of explanation." For every-day purposes "wriggling" will continue to do good service.

Trying to Harass Uncle Sam.
St. Louis Globe-Democrat: California should reflect that the United States has a constitutional right to make treaties, and that they would not be worth making if not respected.

Ye Editor Boosts Ye Maids.
Rockford Register-Gazette: You need not be afraid that you will pick a lemon from the Ham Tree. When you see the chorus you will think it grows nothing but peaches.

Spring Begins Thursday.
Exchange: Real, genuine, orthodox spring will not begin this year until next Thursday at 1:33 p. m.—if any misguided robin should happen along and twitter the question to you.

November Treatment Has Helped.
Exchange: Mr. Bryan is said to have an "unregulated intellect." Yet it has been considerably disciplined by a course of November treatment, one more repetition of which ought to suffice.

Nearness of Lenroot.
Madison Journal: The Superior Telegram maintains a very cheerful air. Lenroot is as good as elected, it declares. It would be nearer the truth to say that Lenroot is as near being elected as he will ever get.

Mark Twain's Words Golden.
El Paso Herald: No other man in history has ever been paid the royal salary that is given Mark Twain. He is paid 30 cents a word on a contract that is unlimited as to time and without conditions as to subjects.

It's Considerate of Harriman.
Exchange: President Roosevelt and President Harriman have arranged for a conference on the state of the nation. It is intimated that Mr. Harriman would rather make a few concessions than to see the whole country go to smash.

Persona Non Grata—to Journal.
Madison Journal: We suggest that University Regent McElroy while he is here, step into the executive office and hand in his resignation as regent. This will save postage, beside giving him more sea room in which to maneuver as a brewery lobbyist.

No Third Term.
Wall Street Journal: President Butler of Columbia University says that Roosevelt will not run for a third term no matter what pressure is brought to bear upon him. No one in unofficial life stands closer to President Roosevelt than Dr. Butler.

Wisconsin Reform Now Mild.
Beloit Press: It seems strange but Western railway officials, now point to Wisconsin as but a reasonable reformer. They call attention to the fact that the State Railway Commission, after careful consideration, only reduced fares to two and one-half cents a mile, keeping and giving a half a loaf.

Poking Its Contemporary.
Fond du Lac Bulletin: A paper which uses syndicate matter for its editorial paragraphs seldom touches upon a topic that has any local interest. A writer in Chicago or New York is about as valuable to the editorial page of a paper as he would be in teaching a language which he can neither read nor speak.

Craftily Old Bonilla!
Chicago Record-Herald: The President of Honduras has gone to fight in person against the Nicaraguans. He has wisely taken his cabinet with him, and may, therefore, have a reasonable chance of finding his office waiting for him when he gets back.

Cocksureness in Esch's Province.
La Crosse Leader-Press: The only public interest is dread that Mr. Stephenson should be elected. With Senator La Follette's help, Stephenson cannot be elected, and the ambitious octogenarian from Marinette must be beginning to realize that he is not to have that help.

Yes, There Are Dull Days.
Tigerton Chronicle: Have you ever noticed what a tame affair the average daily newspaper is when there is no sensational news like the Thaw trial to report? With twelve to sixteen pages to fill, the small amount of reading matter is so diluted that it has the flavor of water gravy.

All-Devouring Costs of War.
Exchange: The annual burden of the military powers of the world is estimated at $3,000,000,000, and the profits of international trade at $2,400,000,000, so that the costs of war eat up all the profits of commerce and something of the capital.

We Have Nothing to Learn.
Wall Street Journal: China is said to have 4,000 students in foreign countries studying law, engineering, commerce, and all forms of modern art, industry, government, etc. The United States has a few special agents abroad studying the cotton market.

Angels—That's the Answer.
Oshkosh Northwestern: A prominent New York physician advances the rather startling theory that women are losing the use of their arms and that in the evolution of time these members will be replaced with either wings or fins. He fails to explain, however, whether the women of the future are also to have gills and web feet.

Send For the Electrician.
Evening Wisconsin: The instant death of a man at Beaver Dam who voluntarily sought to improve the adjustment of an arc light that was burning dimly should warn those who are not familiar with such things to keep away from electric light apparatus. It is a safe rule to beware of all electric wires, poles or guy-posts, as stray currents have claimed many victims.

Two Old Sayings Done Away.
Savannah (Ga.) News: The French have a saying, "As deaf as a fish." We have a saying, "As dumb as an oyster." Both will have to go. Science has discovered that fishes are not deaf and oysters are not dumb. The director of the zoological laboratory at Naples has perfected an apparatus with which he has been able to hear fish and even oysters talking to their species.

Wants Ball Team Tackled First.
Green Bay Gazette: Branding La Crosse as a den of vice the pastors in that city have organized an association which will incorporate with a capital of $100,000. The object of the newly organized body will be the elimination of immorality and gaming from the western city. The reformers will make a good start if they clean out some of the unladylike members of Pink Hawley's champs.

Opinionated, at Any Rate.
Wausau Herald: The Marinette Eagle Star says "everyone is for Stephenson for senator," the La Crosse Tribune says everyone is for Esch the New London Republican says everyone is for Hatten; the Superior Telegram says everyone is for Lenroot; the Milwaukee Sentinel says everyone is for Governor Davidson; the Chippewa Falls Independent says everyone is for Jenkins, etc. What a fickle people are we!

Ripening Bananas to Order.
New York Tribune: An English electrical expert has discovered a means of ripening bananas to order. The bunches are hung in an air-tight glass case in which are a number of electric lights. The artificial light and heat hasten the ripening process in proportion to the number of lights turned on. Records have been made which enable the operators to make delivery of any quantities at any agreed date.

Illinois' Crazy-quilt Capitol.
Peoria Herald-Transcript: Wisconsin has almost decided to erect a white marble capitol building costing $6,000,000. When it does so we will gladly head a movement to have the present Illinois capitol blasted out of the ground and replaced with a really handsome building. The Illinois capitol is decorated with red, white, blue, green, purple, brown yellow and carrot colored marble, arranged after the manner of an old lady's crazy quilt, and the result is plainly noticeable on the minds of the legislators.

As an Optimist Sees Things.
Philadelphia North American: Only the fool claims that everything is bright and good. Yet the greater fool is that one who claims it is all dark and evil. Between these towers the man of divine wisdom—he may be wholly unlearned—who sees and acknowledges he sees the mud, the scum, the stumbling blocks, the clouds and the dark places, but who knows that if he does manfully his part in overcoming them they will not hinder him or stand in the way of his helping along the better day. We make the days and when we complain of them we complain of ourselves.

Londoners Agast.
Exchange: The London smart set is in a condition of social upheaval. Father Bernard Vanga, the famous Jesuit priest, is delivering a course of lectures on the sins of fashionable society. He engaged expert detectives to aid him in his work and he claims to be dealing out facts, with the further promise of startling revelations before the lecture season closes.

Pleasant Quarters Not Enough.
Oshkosh Northwestern: There is a hosiery manufacturing plant at Kenosha which employs about 1,400 persons, which has become famous throughout the country as "the factory where the life of the worker is flooded with sunshine." Nevertheless it is evident that "sunshine" does not entirely fill the wants of the workers there, for nearly a hundred of the male operatives have gone on a strike for more wages.

Sure to be a Losing Venture.
Louisville Courier-Journal: J. Ralph Burton, the former Kansas senator, now serving a jail sentence for having violated his oath as a senator by practicing for pay before departments at Washington, will be released from jail this month. It is said that he will start a weekly paper at Abilene, Kan. This announcement will doubtless be received without enthusiasm by the press of Kansas. Jailbirds have never been welcomed in journalism in the west. A crook who betrays a public trust and becomes repentant only after conviction, making it impossible for him to continue his criminal career as a public servant, is not the man to edit a newspaper in the rarified atmosphere of a western state and we venture the prediction that Mr. Burton will find this out to his cost if he experiments in Abilene.

Mrs. Sage's Benefaction.
New York Times: By her gift of $10,000,000 to establish the Sage foundation Mrs. Russell Sage aims to make men better and happier. While the statement that the end sought is "the improvement of social and living conditions in the United States" might be objected to on the ground of vagueness, it is evident from the ensuing explanation that plans for the use of the fund have been carefully thought out. Mrs. Sage has evidently been actuated by a noble desire to devote this large sum of money entrusted to her for distribution by her husband's will to works that would reach the source of poverty and suffering and give real help to those who for whatever reason are not always able to help themselves. The gift bespeaks not only her own humane impulses but also the wisdom of Mr. Sage in making her his almoner.

Suburban News In Brief

UTTERS CORNERS.

Utters Corners, March 18.—Tuesday, March 18, relatives of Charles Wesley Saxe received the sad intelligence of his death at Long Beach, Calif. Wednesday, March 13, his wife and a brother, Ezra Saxe of Lima, arrived at Whitewater, bringing the remains for burial. The funeral was held at the home of his brother, Dr. Stephen Saxe, in Whitewater, Friday, March 15, and the remains brought here for interment in the Utters Corners cemetery. Death came to Mr. Saxe without a moment's warning. He went to work Monday morning, March 11, at the carpenter trade. He was in his usual good health and those working near him said he had worked but a few minutes hanging a door when he dropped to the floor and died instantly. Physicians examined the body and pronounced his death due to heart disease. Mr. Saxe's early life was spent here, where the family moved when he was a lad of seven years. He was born August 25, 1837, at Catskill, N. Y. For years he had lived in Whitewater, working at the carpenter trade. He was a good workman and an honorable man and a faithful member of the Congregational church. Last October he rented his home and went to Long Branch to stay a year, work at his trade and see the country. The deceased is survived by Mrs. Saxe, a daughter by a former marriage, Mrs. Adelbert Rice of Harmony; four brothers, John, of Daphne, Ala.; Ezra of Lima, Stephen and Wilber of Whitewater; four sisters, Mrs. L. H. Lyman and Mrs. E. H. Thayer of Whitewater, Mrs. Cheney of Oregon City and Mrs. Hattie Hall of Dell Rapids, S. D. The only son, Elery, was killed in a wreck two years ago in which his engine was demolished and it was then supposed that he fell dead at his post with heart disease. Mrs. Elery Saxe and three children live in St. Paul, Minn. Though in his seventieth year he was a strong, vigorous man and looked several years younger. Mrs. Saxe's maiden name was Almira Bortle, who has three sisters, Mrs. Warner Hadley, Mrs. James Hacker and Mrs. Vernon Taft, all of whom are now left widows.

Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Roe of Whitewater spent the past week with their daughter, Mrs. Fred Hadley, who is confined to her bed with inflammatory rheumatism.

Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Roe's daughter Margaret is quite sick with throat trouble. Dr. Ella Chaplin of Whitewater was called Saturday to prescribe for the little girl.

Mrs. John Shields and children are under the care of Dr. Chaplin suffering from hard colds and throat trouble.

Miss Daisy Lerwill assisted Mrs. Myron Paynter with her sewing the past week.

James Randall is selling his personal property at auction on the B. J. Williams farm today and will move to his new home in Illinois April first. Word comes from Fred Blomquist, who went to Littleton, Colo., last fall in hopes that a change of climate would be beneficial to his health, that his health is improving right along. Invitations have been issued by Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Uglow for the marriage of their daughter, Cora to Eugene Paynter, which takes place at the Uglow home, in Whitewater, March 26th. The prospective groom spent his boyhood days here and is a brother of Myron Paynter of this place and has a host of friends here who will wish the young people joy and prosperity. The bride-to-be is a popular young lady who has many friends here. They will make their home on the E. Taylor farm.

..Forty Years Ago..

Janesville Daily Gazette, Tuesday, March 19, 1867.—New Feature in Municipal Legislation.—In the Common Council last evening Alderman Graham presented a petition from a number of residents in the First Ward asking the passage of an ordinance compelling certain residents of that Ward to plant shade trees and care for them. Such an ordinance was introduced and passed under a suspension of rules. It is quite a new feature in Municipal legislation but if the law is enforced a few years will show the merit of it as such a universal planting of trees will make those portions of the city where it is practiced very beautiful and inviting. It is the cheapest and easiest way of enhancing the value of property. We know of the ordinance will have this good effect of compelling people who are willing to do such work, but are negligent of attending to it at once, and time counts in such matters.

The Election of Engineers.—The several companies composing the fire department met last evening to cast a formal ballot for engineers with the following result (some of the more active and sharp members of the department took their associates by a coup de main—it was generally understood that there would be but one ticket in the field; the victorious one took advantage of this, got their men at the meeting in good time, and seeing that they had the majority, gave out their ballots and waded in.—Sec'y.)

Regulars.—For Chief Engineer, Robt. B. Trent, 19; for 1st assistant, James Clark, 18; for 2d assistant, R. P. Young, 18.

Irregulars.—For Chief Engineer, Henry Richards, 22; for assistant engineers, R. P. Young and James Clark each received 23 votes.

On motion the chair declared Henry Richards unanimously nominated and recommended to the common council for the office of Chief Engineer; and James Clark and R. P. Young for Assistant Engineers.

There being no further business, the meeting adjourned.

TIMELY WARNING AGAINST "MAIL ORDER" CREAM SEPARATORS

The "Farm Implement News" of Chicago quotes the following good advice to dairy farmers from a lecture by Prof. C. E. Lee of the University of Illinois, State Experiment Station:

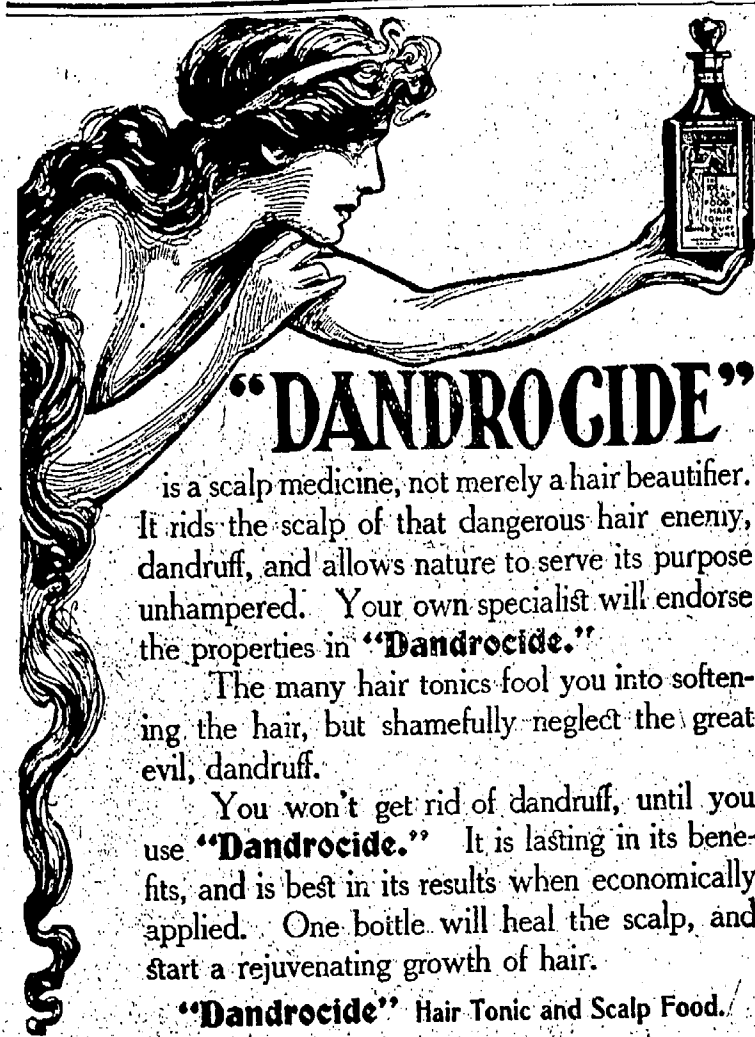

"I am not at liberty to give my preference for I am not selling separators. If I were to name a separator manufacturer, either to you here in public or in private, I would lose my position—but there is one thing I desire to warn you farmers against and that is buying hand separators from the mail order houses. Don't do it—you will regret it. The machines do not give results and they do not last. Our department receives hundreds of inquiries as to what's the matter with my separator? It doesn't do this, or it doesn't do that, and I tell you gentlemen, that in every instance when we ask them to name their separator, it is a 'mail order' house machine, and almost worthless when it was new."

Don't waste your money in a trashy separator, made "cheap" to sell "cheap," that is going to WASTE instead OF SAVE for you EVERY TIME you put milk through it, and which would be VERY DEAR EVEN AS A GIFT.

DE LAVAL Cream Separators are NOT that kind. A DE LAVAL catalogue is to be had for the asking.

PORT OF TRUJILLO TAKEN

IMPORTANT HONDURAN CITY CAPTURED BY NICARAGUA.

Salvador Said to Have Allied Itself with Bonilla, Who Marches on Segovia.

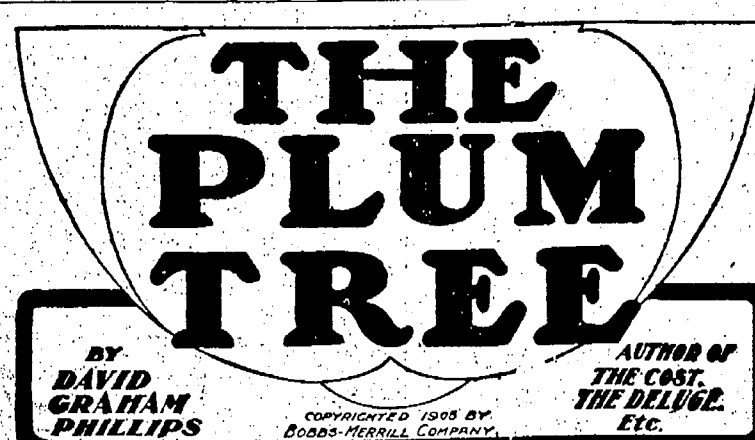

Managua, Nicaragua, March 19.—The port of Trujillo, Honduras, has been captured by the Nicaraguan naval forces. The Hondurans left behind them a piece of artillery, a number of rifles and a quantity of ammunition.

Panama, March 19.—According to reliable information received here from Salvador, that country has allied itself openly with Honduras in the war with Nicaragua. On March 10 2,500 Salvadoran soldiers landed at Amapala and proceeded the next morning in the direction of Choluteca. This body of men came from San Miguel, in Honduras, and is under the command of Gen. Jose Dolores Presa. It is further reported that Gen. Bonilla, president of Honduras, at the head of a body of troops has started for Segovia, Nicaragua. In this movement he is supported by two detachments of Nicaraguan revolutionists commanded by Gens. Chamorro and Chavarria.

The government of Guatemala has refused a request made by Honduran revolutionists to be permitted to cross the frontier and invade Honduras.

THE PLUM TREE

BY DAVID GRAHAM PHILLIPS
AUTHOR OF THE COST, THE DELUGE, ETC.
COPYRIGHTED 1905 BY DOBBS-MERRILL COMPANY.

Woodruff shook his head. "Can't get him," he said. "Dominick controls the two southern ranges of counties. He finances his own machine from what he collects from vice and crime in those cities. He gives that branch of the plum tree to the boys. He keeps the bigger one, the corporations, for himself."

"He can be destroyed," said I, waving aside these significant reminders. "Yes, in five years or so of hard work. Meanwhile, Dominick will run things at the capital to suit himself. Anything you're taking on a good deal more than's necessary—starting with two big fights, one of 'em against a man you ought to use to do up the other. It's like breaking your own sword at the beginning of the duel."

"Go back to the capital," said I, after a moment's thought. "I'll telegraph you up there what to do."

It was my first test—my first chance to show whether I had learned at the savage school at which I had been a pupil. Scores, hundreds of men, can plan, and plan wisely—at almost any cross-roads general store you hear in the conversation round the stove as good plans as ever moved the world to admiration. But execution—there's the rub! And the first essential of an executive is freedom from partialities and hatreds—not to say, "Do I like him? Do I hate him? Was he my enemy a year or a week or a moment ago?" but only to ask oneself the one question: "Can he be useful to me now?"

"I will use Dominick to destroy Dunkirk, and then I will destroy him," I said to myself. But that did not satisfy me. I saw that I was temporizing with the weakness that has wrecked more careers than misjudgment. I felt that I must decide then and there whether or not I would eliminate personal hatred from my life. After a long and bitter struggle, I did decide once and for all.

I telegraphed Woodruff to go ahead. When I went back to Pulaski to settle my affairs there, Dominick came to see me. Not that he dreamed of the existence of my combine or of my connection with the new political deal, but simply because I had married into the Ramsey family and was therefore now in the Olympus of corporate power before which he was on his knees—for a price, like a wise devotee, untroubled by any such qualms as self-respect. I was ready for him. I put out my hand.

"I'm glad you're willing to let bygones be bygones, Mr. Saylor," said he, so moved that the tears stood in his eyes.

Then it flashed on me that, after all, he was only a big brute, driven blindly by his appetites. How silly to plot revenge upon the creatures of circumstance—how like a child beating the chair it happens to strike against! Hatreds and revenge are for the small mind with small matters to occupy it. Of the stones I have quarried to build my career, not one has been, or could have been, spared to waste as a missile.

I went down to the Cedar Grove cemetery, where my mother lay beside my father. My two sisters who died before I was born were at their feet; her parents and his on either side. And I said to her: "Mother, I am going to climb up to a place where I can use my life as you would have me use it. To rise in such a world as this I shall have to do many things you would not approve. I shall do them. But when I reach the height, I shall justify myself and you. I know how many have started with the same pledge and have been so defied by what they had to handle that when they arrived they were past cleansing, and they neither kept nor cared to keep their pledge. But I, mother, shall not break this pledge to you."

CHAPTER VIII.

A Call from "the Party."

About a month after the Chicago and Fredonia bill was smothered in committee there appeared upon the threshold of my office, in the administration building of the Ramsey company, a man whom at first glance you might have taken for an exhorted or a collector for some pious enterprise. But if you had made a study of faces, your second glance would have cut through that glaze of oily, apologetic appeal. Behind a thin screen of short gray, beard lay a heavy, loose mouth, cruel and strong; above it, a great beak and a pair of pale green eyes, intensely alive. They were in startling contrast to the apparent decrepitude of the stooped shuffling body, far too small for its covering of decent but somewhat rusty black.

"Senator Dunkirk," said I, rising, and advancing to greet the justly feared leader of my party. "I knew there was an intimate connection between this visit and the death of his pet project. I thought it safe to assume that he had somehow stumbled upon Woodruff's tunneling, and with that well-trained nose of his had smelled out their origin." But I need not have disquieted myself; I did not then know how softly Woodruff moved, sending no warnings ahead, and leaving no trail behind.

For several minutes, the senator and I both felt for each other in the dark in which we both straightway hid. He was the first to give up and reveal himself in the open. "But I do not wish to waste your time and my own, Mr. Saylor," he said. "I have come to see you about the threatened split in the party. You are, perhaps, surprised that I should have come to you, when you have been so many years out of politics, but I think you will understand, as I explain myself, you know Mr. Roebuck?"

"I can't say that I know him," I replied. "He is not an easy man to know—indeed, who is?"

"A very able man; in some respects a great man," Dunkirk went on. "But, like so many of our great men of business, he cannot appreciate politics—the difficulties of the man in public life whose persuasion and compromise must be used, authority almost never. And, because I have resisted some of his impossible demands, he has declared war on the party. He has raised up in it a faction headed by your old enemy, Dominick. I need not tell you what a brute, what a beast he is, the representative of all that is abhorrent in politics."

"A faction headed by Dominick couldn't be very formidable," I suggested.

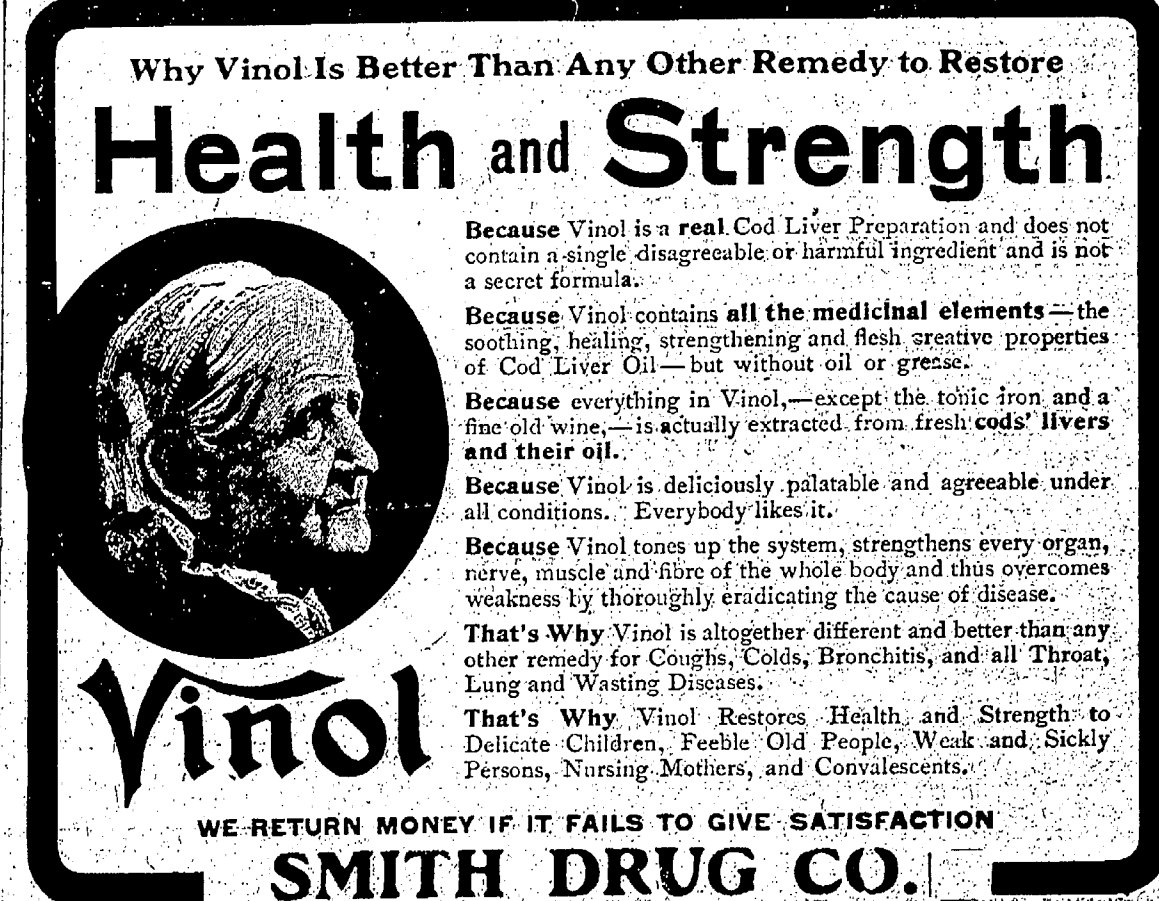

"But Dominick isn't the nominal leader," replied Dunkirk. "Roebuck is far too shrewd for that. No, he has put forward as the decoy my colleague, Croft—perhaps you know him? If so, I needn't tell you what a vain, shallow, venal fellow he is, with his gift of gab that fools the people."

"I know him," said I, in a tone which did not deny the accuracy of Dunkirk's description.

"Their object," continued the senator, "is to buy the control of the party machinery away from those who now manage it in the interests of conservatism and fair dealing. If they succeed the only business interest that will be considered in this state will be the power trust. And we shall have Dominick, the ignorant brute, lashed on by Roebuck's appetites, until the people will rise in fury and elect the opposition—and you know what it is."

"What you say is most interesting," said I, "but I confess I haven't imagination enough to conceive a condition of affairs in which anybody with the price couldn't get what he wanted by paying for it. Perhaps the business interests would gain by a change—the other crowd might be less expensive. Certainly the demands of our party's machine have become intolerable."

"It astonishes me, Mr. Saylor, to hear you say that—you, who have been in politics," he protested, taken aback by my hardly disguised attack upon him—for he was in reality "party" and "machine." "Surely you understand the situation. We must have money to maintain our organization, and to run our campaign. Our workers can't live on air, and, to speak of only one other factor, there are thousands and thousands of our voters, honest fellows, too, who must be paid to come to the polls. They wouldn't vote against us for any sum; but unless we pay them for the day lost in the fields, they stay at home. Now, where does our money come from? The big corporations are the only source—who else could or would give largely enough? And it is necessary and just that they should be repaid. But they are no longer content with moderate and prudent rewards for their patriotism. They make bigger and bigger, and more and more unreasonable demands on us, and so undermine our popularity—for the people can't be blinded wholly to what's going on. And thus, year by year, it takes more and more

FOUR RIFLES OF COMPANY B USED

RESULT OF EXAMINING SHELLS
FOUND AT BROWNSVILLE.

CONFESSION STORY FALSE

No. "D. W. Gray" Was a Member of Disgraced Battalion—Branded
as a Fake at San Antonio.

Washington, March 19.—Four rifles from Company B, Twenty-fifth infantry, were used in the Brownsville affray, if the ordnance department of the army can substantiate reports sent to the senate committee on military affairs Monday concerning the microscopic examinations of the 33 shells picked up in the streets of the town on the morning following the shooting.

All of the rifles in the possession of the battalion at Fort Brown on the night of August 13 were sent to the Springfield arsenal and two shots were fired from each. The shells used were then compared with those picked up at Brownsville, and the officers making the tests reported that it has been demonstrated beyond dispute that four guns of Company B were used in discharging all of the 33 shells.

Ready to Explain Reports.
The reports were made a part of the committee records, and Lieut. Hawkins of the ordnance department and G. A. Spooner, expert inspector of gauges used in the manufacture of muskets at the Springfield arsenal, are ready to go on the stand to explain the reports and be cross-examined concerning them.

Two of Company B's rifles, said to have been used in the affray, were kept in the storehouse under lock, the key of which was in possession of former Quartermaster Sergeant Walker McCurdy, and the other two rifles were said to have been issued to Privates Joseph L. Wilson and Thomas Taylor. Senator Foraker immediately had subpoenas issued for Taylor and Wilson and for the recall of McCurdy. He also asked that the war department be instructed to send for Lieut. Laurison, who commanded Company B at the time of the affray. Secretary Taft, in a letter to the committee, pointed out that the men who did the shooting may have used any guns they could secure, and that Taylor and Wilson cannot be held to be guilty because of the showing made by the tests at the arsenal.

Galveston Story Denied.
The alleged confession of "D. W. Gray," supposed to be a member of Company B, which was printed at Galveston, Tex., was formally denied Monday in a telegram from Maj. Blocksom at San Antonio, to the war department. Maj. Blocksom said in his dispatch that he had received a telegram from the chief of police at Galveston saying that the publication was a fake.

Senator Foraker had the alleged confession put in the record with the denial which had been furnished to Chairman Warren by the war department. The Ohio senator also had recorded the fact that there was not a man named "D. W. Gray" in the discharged battalion, but that there were two men named Gray, one G. W. and the other J. H. Gray, in Company C. Both of these men were heard from, denying that they had made confessions. One is in West Virginia and the other in Pennsylvania.

No members of the Twenty-fifth infantry were examined Monday, and no testimony was given which had any direct bearing on the shooting, except that of Henry Watson, a private of Company M, Twenty-sixth infantry.

Branded as a Fake.
San Antonio, Tex., March 19.—Very little new testimony was taken Monday in the Penrose court-martial. The story of Gray's alleged confession is considered here as a fake. A telegram to the department headquarters here from Lieut. Fred Van S. Chamberlain, recruiting officer at Houston and Galveston, says: "Gray story a fake. Gray has worked in Galveston seven years and has never been in the army."

SMALLPOX IN PARIS.

People Rush to Be Vaccinated—Little Danger of Epidemic.

Paris, March 19.—The appearance of a few cases of smallpox here has greatly alarmed the people. Thousands of persons have been vaccinated during the last few days and the hospitals and the Academy of Medicine are besieged by crowds of people anxious to be revaccinated. The authorities believe that there is no real danger of an epidemic.

Dr. Mesureur, director general of public assistance, who has charge of the hospitals said there had been only two deaths thus far, and there were but six cases under treatment. He added that the cases in Paris, which are of a particularly virulent type, had all been traced to Tunis and Tripoli.

Canadian Fares Reduced.

Ottawa, Ont., March 19.—The railway commission Monday ordered the Canadian Pacific and the Grand Trunk railroads to reduce passenger rates to three cents a mile. MORE DEATHS IN FLOOD

SEVERAL ITALIANS SAID TO HAVE PERISHED.

Heavy Damage Has Been Sustained
By the Industrial Plants at Marietta, O.

Cincinnati, March 19.—A three-story brick building at Front and Plum streets, which had been surrounded by the Ohio river flood for several days, collapsed Monday night, resulting in the death of two persons and injury of ten others. The building was occupied by several Italian families. A middle-aged woman and her three-year-old child were instantly killed.

The Ohio river at nine o'clock Monday night was stationary at 62 feet. According to river men it will begin to recede Tuesday.

Marietta, O., March 19.—The receding water has revealed serious condition and yet the loss is not so great as at first indicated. The Sterling oil refinery is a complete loss, the stills, tanks and building having floated off, while the manufactured product was destroyed, causing a loss of $50,000. The National refinery suffered heavily. It will be several days before railroads are able to run trains regularly. One hundred houses and innumerable barns have been swept from their foundations. The greatest trouble now is the shortage of fuel gas in the flooded districts. The loss in Washington county may reach $1,000,000 according to careful estimates here.

The National Table works suffered a heavy loss. The doors of the plant were left open and finished product and cut stock floated off. The Stevens Organ & Piano company lost 50 pianos and much material. Fair-weather hall of Marietta college, opened by Mrs. Alice Roosevelt-Longworth last October, was flooded.

MORE GRAFT IN FRISCO.

Grand Jury Believed to Have Uncovered Vast Corruption.

San Francisco, March 19.—The action of the grand jury in bringing before it Monday the members of the board of supervisors aroused the greatest interest. The Bulletin published an "extra" declaring that further exposures of municipal corruption had been made and that many indictments would soon be made.

The Bulletin says that a plot involving the granting of valuable street railway privileges were laid bare. It is charged that the sum of $450,000 was paid to high officials to permit of the conversion of street railway systems into electric lines and that the bulk of this money was retained by "a mysterious man," and that small sums of money were parceled out to minor officials. Another story is that rival telephone companies each paid large sums of money. Another charge is that a corporation fund of $25,000 was raised by prize fight promoters to secure a monopoly of fight permits.

PRESIDENT'S SUMMER PLANS.

He Goes to Oyster Bay Before End of June.

Washington, March 19.—Tentative plans for the president's summer at Oyster Bay have been discussed at the White House. As now contemplated, he will leave Washington for that place somewhere between the 20th and 25th of June. If he can conveniently get away earlier, he will do so. A trip to Indianapolis and Lansing, Mich., and two trips to the Jamestown exposition are on the program before the president's vacation begins.

Washington, March 19.—The Bucyrus company of South Milwaukee was the lowest bidder for the 22 steam shovels to be used on the isthmus, for which proposals were opened Monday by D. W. Ross, purchasing agent of the isthmus canal commission. The price offered by this company on 15 95-ton shovels was $12,400 each, delivered in Panama, and on seven 50-ton shovels $7,000 each delivered at Colon.

Military Pope.
Pope Julius II, who died in 1510, was the first pope to allow his beard to grow in order, it was said, to inspire greater respect among the faithful. He was called the military pope. When Michael Angelo was making his statue he said to him: "Holy Father, shall I place a book in your hand?" "No," answered his holiness. "A sword rather—I know better how to handle it."

Marriage an "Endurance Thrill."
The trouble about matrimony, as I have observed it from me seat in the gran' stand, is that after fifteen or twenty years it settles down to an endurance thrille. "Women," as Hogan says, "are creatures iv such beaughous mien; that to be loved they have but to be seen; but," he says, "wans; they're seer an' made secure," he says, "we first embrace, thin pity, thin endure," he says.—"Dooley," in Harper's.
